

Watch the Ballot-Box.

We are surprised that Mr. FULKERSON should decline to ask for the appointment of Federal supervisors in his district, and especially at the poor reason he gives for his declination. The law is upon the statute-book, and will be none the less a law because he does not like it. Federal interference in State elections? But the fact is that these are national elections. Congress has the power to take these elections entirely out of the hands of the State officials. The Constitution expressly confers upon that body power to make regulations as to "the times, places, and manner" of holding elections for representatives. The Washington correspondent of the Alexandria Gazette writes:

"Information from Rockingham county, Va., indicates that the Coalition managers in that county, becoming alarmed at the prospects of John Paul's defeat, are growing reckless, and are threatening to give any number of votes that may be necessary to elect their man, be it either by fair or foul means."

Is Mr. FULKERSON sure that he may not be the victim of similar methods? It will be poor satisfaction for him or any other candidate to say, after the election, that he was counted out; and have no evidence of the fact. Appoint watchers under the Federal law, and then everybody—Administration candidates and Democratic candidates—will be satisfied that the true results have been declared. We commend the following figures to Mr. FULKERSON'S attention. They show the vote in eight counties of the district for CAMERON and DANIEL:

	Daniel, Cameron.
Lee	268	642
Scott	343	1,454
Bedford	30	375
Washington	1,418	1,877
Westmoreland	316	1,287
Tazewell	634	1,380
Stafford	693	1,138
	8,098	8,967

Five thousand majority for CAMERON in eight counties is a rather large one. It may have been honestly given. We trust that it was. But we ask for supervisors that we may ascertain no doubts next time. PETER CARTER'S declaration to Mr. WOLFE that CAMERON was Governor anyhow has caused much suspicion that all was not fair in the last State election.

The Capitulation-Tax.

A correspondent residing in Staunton writes to us as follows: "It is all important that Democrats pay the capitulation-tax. Late on the night preceding the last election a Federal officer walked into our city treasurer's office and paid the negroes' delinquent taxes in a batch. Mahone is making a determined fight—fighting to win, if possible—and he will win if victory can be secured by the payment of delinquent taxes of colored voters. Remember, if he wins now Virginia is Republican for a long time hereafter."

We fear that the Democrats do not appreciate the importance of this matter. The collectors of delinquent capitulation-taxes will surprise the Democrats on election-day. The negroes will come up in squads armed with certificates from said collectors which will entitle them to vote, whilst the Democrats, like a poor boor boy at a frolic, will have nothing to say. It will be too late then. The tax cannot be paid on election-day. It must be paid before that day. Eternal vigilance is the only thing that will insure success to the Democrats in the coming contest at the ballot-box. All you can do on election-day is to list the names of the persons voting on collectors' certificates and ascertain afterwards whether these certificates were given in good faith. Some of the collectors are hard cases.

The Internal-Revenue System.

It is reported that Commissioner RAYM, or Mr. ARTHUR, or the Administration, or whatever you choose to call MAHONE'S Washington allies, not content with the "strikes" which the internal-revenue system has hitherto furnished to them as workers for the success of the MAHONE ticket in Virginia, have appointed a number of new officials in CAPELLA'S district. The gentleman who told us of it had no doubt of the truth of the report. Now, what other possible use can there be for additional internal-revenue officers in any district in Virginia than to serve as electioneers for MAHONE'S candidates? The Government had last year a surplus revenue of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, all collected without the assistance of these new appointees. There is no complaint that we have ever heard of that the people of the Fifth district are more disposed to violate the revenue laws than the people of any other district. Why, then, these new officials? They were appointed by a Republican Administration, and will be paid out of money collected from the tax-payers to work for the election of Sims and the defeat of CAPELLA.

Democrats of Virginia, can you fail to see that a regard for duty demands that you shall rebuke these outrages by voting for anti-MAHONE congressmen?

The Seventh District.

A letter received yesterday by the chairman of the State Executive Committee reveals the astonishing fact that in a single township in Augusta county there are two hundred white men who have never been registered. This fact was discovered by a diligent examination of the property-books, and a like discovery will reveal the same state of facts elsewhere. Let this matter be looked after at once. It is the first duty of the local organization; and the most effective.

Of these 200 men four fifths will vote the white man's ticket, and a few such changes would beat PAUL out of a sight. We cannot afford to overlook this vast army of non-voters. There never was a time when they could not have reversed any election in Virginia. If MAHONE succeeds in the canvass it will be because white men do not value citizenship as highly as black men in the Commonwealth. Could there be a greater shame?

Edwin Alden & Brother's American Newspaper Catalogue, Cincinnati, 1882. This handsomely-printed and neatly-bound volume of 718 pages contains lists of all the newspapers and magazines published in the United States and Canada, together with the population of the places in which they are published, and much other valuable information. The illustrated description of the offices occupied by Messrs. ALDEN & BROTHER in the prosecution of their advertising-agency business gives some idea of the great magnitude of it, and of the order and system with which it is conducted. Every advertiser should have a copy.

TALMAGE preached last Sunday one of his political sermons, or, rather, palmed off a political speech for a sermon. Amongst his assertions was the following:

"We have killed political bosses for the last fifteen years, and there never were so many political bosses as today. On the 7th of November several of these bosses, if not all of them, will be killed off. CAMERON, of Pennsylvania, will be. CONKLIN, of New York, will be. MAHONE, of Virginia, ought to be. But he won't be, if you refuse to vote for John E. MASSEY."

From Williamsburg.

POLITICAL SPEAKING AT YORK COURT AND AT WILLIAMSBURG, October 6, 1882.

MAHONITES TO TURN THE NEGROES FROM DEZENDORF AND DAWSON.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Very little business was done at York court yesterday, most of the day being taken up with political speeches. Hon. John Goode and R. C. Marshall spoke in the court-house. A short distance from the court-house a stand was erected for the Republicans and Mahonites. W. H. Lester represented Dezendorf, and proved himself more than a match for Van Auker, Norton & Co. He was on his hands and knees, and his manner was very impressive. He was present, but did not speak. But for being a friend of Dr. Wise and a member of the Asylum Board he never would have been heard of in the Mahone party. It had been advertised here for several days that the Republican would make a stand at the court-house last night. The Mahonite boss for this place only heard of it yesterday, when a telegram was at once sent to James H. Edloe, an employee in the customhouse of your city, and a messenger sent to Yorktown in the asylum car to bring up Norton and his crowd—all to meet the Straightshots. About 8 o'clock quite a large crowd had gathered at the court-house. Lester was the only Republican speaker present. There were about 100 of the other side. Lester agreed to allow a Coalitionist to open in half an hour's speech, he to reply in a speech of same duration; the Coalitionist again to speak half an hour, and Lester to close in half hour. The Coalitionists would not agree to this. They wanted all of a night, and the head from the crowd. When told that his proposition was certainly a fair one, and if they did not agree to it they knew their remedy. Dr. Wise then came forward and called upon every Coalitionist who had the count-house and go over to Mr. Bradshaw's bar-room, where a meeting would be held. The Asylum Board were not in the force, and were the first to rush for the door, at the same time making all the noise they could, and calling upon the crowd to follow; but a majority of the colored people wanted to remain and hear Lester. Many of them were not allowed to do so, and they had to leave by the arm and actually forced to leave the court-house. When they had gotten there they were at once started to Mr. Bradshaw's, and told to remain there until the speaking commenced. Then these same parties returned, and went all through the crowd, and were scattering them. Lester was seen by all of their party had been overlooked. Never before in this county was such a thing attempted. Order having been restored, W. H. Lester spoke for about two hours with fine effect. At times the applause was so great that the Coalitionists were seen at the door, having left their own meeting, and two of them even came inside, and again tried to prevail on the colored men to leave, but they met with such poor success they very soon left. Not less than five or six customhouse officers were here, and were heard to say by the arm and actually forced to leave the court-house. One of them, from your city, came in with pencil and paper, and, we think, took down the names of some of those who he might have considered doubtful. In speaking of the Norfolk post-office, Lester stated that Mahone was a Republican, and that States senators to Arthur to inform him that unless Nichols (Republican) was turned out he could not be depended upon to vote with the Republicans in the Senate.

A majority of the colored people not connected with the asylum as a result for Dawson and Dezendorf, and all the north and whiskey which the Coalitionists are now using in this district will never get their votes for Wise and Libby. A colored preacher has been sent here by the Mahonites to try and take Dawson's congregation from him, but he has failed. The colored people are not so easily won over as the white people. The larger portion of Dawson's congregation are from the counties of York and James City, and are in no way connected or influenced by any political machine, consequently they vote and act to suit themselves, and will not be led by a single member outside of Williamsburg who will not vote for Dawson.

Politics in James City.

DESPERATE EFFORTS OF MAHONE TO CARRY THE SECOND DISTRICT—FAILURE OF MONDAY'S MEETING AT WILLIAMSBURG—REYER'S VOTE—REMARKS OF THE PRESS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., October 9, 1882. Attorney-General Blair, General Stith Bolling, of Petersburg; Dr. Wise, State Senator Harris; Norton, member of the House from York county, and Customhouse Officer Francis, of your city, all Mahonites—spoke in the court-house here today. Dr. Hines, reporter for the National Republican, Mahone's Washington paper, was on hand to report the speeches for the Boss. The crowd was not as large as I have seen on similar occasions. Quite a large number of Democrats were present. The speeches were the same old thing—vindication of Mahone and his policy and what the great Liberal party is doing for the colored man. While Blair was speaking a flag was raised in front of the court-house with the names of John S. Wise and Harry Libby on it.

WOULD NOT RESPOND TO WISE. Just before the meeting adjourned Dr. Wise called on all in favor of Wise and Libby to hold up their hands; those who opposed do the same, when to his astonishment no doubt, some thirty colored men, who had heard all the speeches and could not be converted to Bossism, held up their hands in favor of Dawson and Dezendorf. The Doctor was very angry at this, and pointed at one fellow whom he said had promised him to vote for his brother, the white speakers then left the stand, and Tim Edloe, Norton & Co. took charge. Edloe can always be counted on for a very bitter speech during the campaign, and he was very popular with the colored people. He showed you how intent the Coalitionists are on carrying this district, a colored man informed me this morning that they had deposited at a certain colored man's store in James City county a sum of money, which was being used in the purchase of voters, and the four men were now on the road buying them money and whiskey can do to carry the State.

Very little business was done in court today. Of the five prisoners who broke jail last month three became frightened and ran. A colored boy was from York county. A colored boy named Billy Russell was badly cut with a knife yesterday evening by another colored fellow. The party was at once arrested by Policeman Lawson and taken before the mayor, who sent him to the grand jury for indictment. We think this is the first case that has been before the mayor for several days. We hear that on Saturday last some public officials were assembled at the luncheon room for the purpose of overhauling the delinquent tax-list.

Quite a number of Mahonites will go up to Quantico City, next Saturday, to hear the Hon. R. C. Marshall, our candidate in this district. H. D. COLM.

The Discussion at Chesterfield Court-house Between George D. Wise and R. C. Allen.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

CHESTERFIELD COURTHOUSE, VA.,

October 10, 1882.

Hon. G. D. Wise met Hon. S. B. Allen in discussion here yesterday. Allen led in a speech of one hour. Wise replied in one and a half hours, and Allen concluded in twenty minutes. Mr. Allen spoke of the debt accomplished by his party; said the debt was settled, but there were other and higher things to be done, and the only way of accomplishing their great purposes was to accept the proffered hand of Arthur, and support his liberal Administration; that Virginia owed northern Democracy nothing, for when a sign of danger appeared the northern Democrats fled; that the time had come for us to sever the tie that binds us to the old party and join the great liberal movement. He then paid his compliments to Mr. Massey, and said that he had been over a large portion of Virginia lately, and had not seen one respectable man who had the pluck to stand up in a crowd and say he would vote for Massey. When he said that a staunch Democrat cried out, "Here is one, sir!" and then the whole crowd of Democrats rose, a body and took up the cry, and made the speaker, who next touched upon John Wise, who, he said, two years ago told the people of Chesterfield that "he was born a Democrat, raised a Democrat, and would die a Democrat." "Where is John Wise now?" he continued. "There he is, the son of Henry A. Wise—let it not be said that I am a liar. He is an Englishman by birth, married one of our country ladies, and is now settled in our community, and his learned widow has the sympathy of our entire community."

Not Murdered. PARTICULARS OF THE DEATH OF THE YOUNG ENGLISHMAN LANGSLOW, KILLED BY A RUN-AWAY HORSE.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

 PROSPECT, PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY, VA., |

October 9, 1882.

The rumor current in the press that young Langslow, who was killed near here Saturday, was probably murdered, is untrue. The accident occurred one mile below this place Saturday night. As Mr. Richard Langslow was driving home in his sulky his horse became frightened and ran off. He was found an hour afterwards hanging by one leg from the sulky dead. Mr. Langslow was constable and collector of taxes. He is an Englishman by birth. Married one of our country ladies, and is now settled in our community, and his learned widow has the sympathy of our entire community.

"Unbidden guests are often welcomed when they are gone." Disease is an unbidden guest which Kidney-Wort invariably shows "the door." Here is a case in point. "Mother, I am covered," wrote an Illinois girl to her eastern relative, "She took bitters for a long time, but without any good. So when she heard of the virtues of Kidney-Wort she got a box, and it completely cured her, so that she can do as much work now as she could before she moved West. Since she got well everybody about is taking it."

Both gentlemen were highly complimented for their pleasant manner toward each other, and the crowd was very large. Democrats gratified at the result.

CHESTERFIELD.

The Candidates in Gloucester. JUDGE GARRISON, WOLFE AND MATO MEET—MAHONE AND MAHONISM SHOWN UP—THE FIRST DISTRICT SOLD FOR GARRISON.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

OCTOBER 7, 1882.

The three candidates for congressional honors from the First district met in joint discussion here today. Mr. Wolfe, the Republican candidate, opened the discussion in a speech containing many good points, in which he attacked the record of Mr. May, the Coalition candidate, in a scathing and effective manner. His denunciation of Mahone was very bitter. The Hon. George T. Garrison, the candidate of the Conservative-Democratic party, followed, and was a powerful speaker, and again tried to prevail on the colored men to leave, but they met with such poor success they very soon left. Not less than five or six customhouse officers were here, and were heard to say by the arm and actually forced to leave the court-house. One of them, from your city, came in with pencil and paper, and, we think, took down the names of some of those who he might have considered doubtful. In speaking of the Norfolk post-office, Lester stated that Mahone was a Republican, and that States senators to Arthur to inform him that unless Nichols (Republican) was turned out he could not be depended upon to vote with the Republicans in the Senate.

A majority of the colored people not connected with the asylum as a result for Dawson and Dezendorf, and all the north and whiskey which the Coalitionists are now using in this district will never get their votes for Wise and Libby. A colored preacher has been sent here by the Mahonites to try and take Dawson's congregation from him, but he has failed. The colored people are not so easily won over as the white people. The larger portion of Dawson's congregation are from the counties of York and James City, and are in no way connected or influenced by any political machine, consequently they vote and act to suit themselves, and will not be led by a single member outside of Williamsburg who will not vote for Dawson.

Politics in James City. DESPERATE EFFORTS OF MAHONE TO CARRY THE SECOND DISTRICT—FAILURE OF MONDAY'S MEETING AT WILLIAMSBURG—REYER'S VOTE—REMARKS OF THE PRESS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., October 9, 1882.

Attorney-General Blair, General Stith Bolling, of Petersburg; Dr. Wise, State Senator Harris; Norton, member of the House from York county, and Customhouse Officer Francis, of your city, all Mahonites—spoke in the court-house here today. Dr. Hines, reporter for the National Republican, Mahone's Washington paper, was on hand to report the speeches for the Boss. The crowd was not as large as I have seen on similar occasions. Quite a large number of Democrats were present. The speeches were the same old thing—vindication of Mahone and his policy and what the great Liberal party is doing for the colored man. While Blair was speaking a flag was raised in front of the court-house with the names of John S. Wise and Harry Libby on it.

WOULD NOT RESPOND TO WISE. Just before the meeting adjourned Dr. Wise called on all in favor of Wise and Libby to hold up their hands; those who opposed do the same, when to his astonishment no doubt, some thirty colored men, who had heard all the speeches and could not be converted to Bossism, held up their hands in favor of Dawson and Dezendorf. The Doctor was very angry at this, and pointed at one fellow whom he said had promised him to vote for his brother, the white speakers then left the stand, and Tim Edloe, Norton & Co. took charge. Edloe can always be counted on for a very bitter speech during the campaign, and he was very popular with the colored people. He showed you how intent the Coalitionists are on carrying this district, a colored man informed me this morning that they had deposited at a certain colored man's store in James City county a sum of money, which was being used in the purchase of voters, and the four men were now on the road buying them money and whiskey can do to carry the State.

Very little business was done in court today. Of the five prisoners who broke jail last month three became frightened and ran. A colored boy was from York county. A colored boy named Billy Russell was badly cut with a knife yesterday evening by another colored fellow. The party was at once arrested by Policeman Lawson and taken before the mayor, who sent him to the grand jury for indictment. We think this is the first case that has been before the mayor for several days. We hear that on Saturday last some public officials were assembled at the luncheon room for the purpose of overhauling the delinquent tax-list.

Not From Norton. COUNTY-COURT AND ILLNESS OF JUDGE MANN'S WIFE—DAWSON AND LAMB, ET AL.

NORTOWN, C. H., October 5th.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Judge Mann held a very short session of the County Court here yesterday. The illness of Mrs. Mann; but one case tried, and the prisoner discharged after appropriate words of admonition from the court. The boy was accused of shooting a girl at Burkeville a month or so ago, and causing her to lose an eye, but the shooting was proven to have been accidental. For a week or ten days intense anxiety has been felt here and throughout the county for Mrs. Mann. To-day her condition is reported more favorable, and her many friends are hopeful of her recovery. Our people deeply sympathize with her and her husband.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Massy Garden in the Southwest. NEW GARDEN, Va., October 9, 1882.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Hon. John E. Massey made two rousing speeches in Russell—one at the Court-house and one in New Garden. The consequence was that the Big "F" didn't quite break. Accompanying Mr. Massey, seems to be giving a good living account of himself, especially in the Ninth district. Colonel Bowen, Mahone's Arthur candidate, has his best almost ready to start up Salt river; only lacks two or three cals for more post-mortems and overcooked. A READJUSTER-DEMOCRAT.

Laid Up for Repairs. (From the Brooklyn Eagle.)

Amos F. Learned, of the Twenty-second ward, is a cast-iron politician, and glories in the possession of one of the broken "308" Chicago medals. The following correspondence took place between him and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher immediately after the publication of Mr. Beecher's sermon, "Democracy the corrupt and fraudulent Sanitosa Convention": "Dear Mr. Beecher,—You made an ass of yourself yesterday. [Signed] "AMOS F. LEARNED." "Dear Sir,—The Lord saved you the trouble of making an ass of yourself making you an ass at the beginning—and his work is sure to stand out. [Signed] "HENRY WARD BEECHER." It is understood that Mr. Learned is laid up for repairs.

Not Murdered. PARTICULARS OF THE DEATH OF THE YOUNG ENGLISHMAN LANGSLOW, KILLED BY A RUN-AWAY HORSE.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PROSPECT, PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY, VA.,

October 9, 1882.

The rumor current in the press that young Langslow, who was killed near here Saturday, was probably murdered, is untrue. The accident occurred one mile below this place Saturday night. As Mr. Richard Langslow was driving home in his sulky his horse became frightened and ran off. He was found an hour afterwards hanging by one leg from the sulky dead. Mr. Langslow was constable and collector of taxes. He is an Englishman by birth. Married one of our country ladies, and is now settled in our community, and his learned widow has the sympathy of our entire community.

"Unbidden guests are often welcomed when they are gone." Disease is an unbidden guest which Kidney-Wort invariably shows "the door." Here is a case in point. "Mother, I am covered," wrote an Illinois girl to her eastern relative, "She took bitters for a long time, but without any good. So when she heard of the virtues of Kidney-Wort she got a box, and it completely cured her, so that she can do as much work now as she could before she moved West. Since she got well everybody about is taking it."

Both gentlemen were highly complimented for their pleasant manner toward each other, and the crowd was very large. Democrats gratified at the result.

CHESTERFIELD.

The Candidates in Gloucester. JUDGE GARRISON, WOLFE AND MATO MEET—MAHONE AND MAHONISM SHOWN UP—THE FIRST DISTRICT SOLD FOR GARRISON.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

OCTOBER 7, 1882.

The three candidates for congressional honors from the First district met in joint discussion here today. Mr. Wolfe, the Republican candidate, opened the discussion in a speech containing many good points, in which he attacked the record of Mr. May, the Coalition candidate, in a scathing and effective manner. His denunciation of Mahone was very bitter. The Hon. George T. Garrison, the candidate of the Conservative-Democratic party, followed, and was a powerful speaker, and again tried to prevail on the colored men to leave, but they met with such poor success they very soon left. Not less than five or six customhouse officers were here, and were heard to say by the arm and actually forced to leave the court-house. One of them, from your city, came in with pencil and paper, and, we think, took down the names of some of those who he might have considered doubtful. In speaking of the Norfolk post-office, Lester stated that Mahone was a Republican, and that States senators to Arthur to inform him that unless Nichols (Republican) was turned out he could not be depended upon to vote with the Republicans in the Senate.

A majority of the colored people not connected with the asylum as a result for Dawson and Dezendorf, and all the north and whiskey which the Coalitionists are now using in this district will never get their votes for Wise and Libby. A colored preacher has been sent here by the Mahonites to try and take Dawson's congregation from him, but he has failed. The colored people are not so easily won over as the white people. The larger portion of Dawson's congregation are from the counties of York and James City, and are in no way connected or influenced by any political machine, consequently they vote and act to suit themselves, and will not be led by a single member outside of Williamsburg who will not vote for Dawson.

Politics in James City. DESPERATE EFFORTS OF MAHONE TO CARRY THE SECOND DISTRICT—FAILURE OF MONDAY'S MEETING AT WILLIAMSBURG—REYER'S VOTE—REMARKS OF THE PRESS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., October 9, 1882.

Attorney-General Blair, General Stith Bolling, of Petersburg; Dr. Wise, State Senator Harris; Norton, member of the House from York county, and Customhouse Officer Francis, of your city, all Mahonites—spoke in the court-house here today. Dr. Hines, reporter for the National Republican, Mahone's Washington paper, was on hand to report the speeches for the Boss. The crowd was not as large as I have seen on similar occasions. Quite a large number of Democrats were present. The speeches were the same old thing—vindication of Mahone and his policy and what the great Liberal party is doing for the colored man. While Blair was speaking a flag was raised in front of the court-house with the names of John S. Wise and Harry Libby on it.

WOULD NOT RESPOND TO WISE. Just before the meeting adjourned Dr. Wise called on all in favor of Wise and Libby to hold up their hands; those who opposed do the same, when to his astonishment no doubt, some thirty colored men, who had heard all the speeches and could not be converted to Bossism, held up their hands in favor of Dawson and Dezendorf. The Doctor was very angry at this, and pointed at one fellow whom he said had promised him to vote for his brother, the white speakers then left the stand, and Tim Edloe, Norton & Co. took charge. Edloe can always be counted on for a very bitter speech during the campaign, and he was very popular with the colored people. He showed you how intent the Coalitionists are on carrying this district, a colored man informed me this morning that they had deposited at a certain colored man's store in James City county a sum of money, which was being used in the purchase of voters, and the four men were now on the road buying them money and whiskey can do to carry the State.

Very little business was done in court today. Of the five prisoners who broke jail last month three became frightened and ran. A colored boy was from York county. A colored boy named Billy Russell was badly cut with a knife yesterday evening by another colored fellow. The party was at once arrested by Policeman Lawson and taken before the mayor, who sent him to the grand jury for indictment. We think this is the first case that has been before the mayor for several days. We hear that on Saturday last some public officials were assembled at the luncheon room for the purpose of overhauling the delinquent tax-list.

Not From Norton. COUNTY-COURT AND ILLNESS OF JUDGE MANN'S WIFE—DAWSON AND LAMB, ET AL.

NORTOWN, C. H., October 5th.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Judge Mann held a very short session of the County Court here yesterday. The illness of Mrs. Mann; but one case tried, and the prisoner discharged after appropriate words of admonition from the court. The boy was accused of shooting a girl at Burkeville a month or so ago, and causing her to lose an eye, but the shooting was proven to have been accidental. For a week or ten days intense anxiety has been felt here and throughout the county for Mrs. Mann. To-day her condition is reported more favorable, and her many friends are hopeful of her recovery. Our people deeply sympathize with her and her husband.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.

Colonel Lamb and Dawson had a discussion to-day before a rather small audience. The Mayor of Norfolk, who boasted of his election twice by the people, though he did not care at all for the office, was rather indignant at the report of the election. The negroes, many of them, were deeply interested in what Dawson told them. But no body can count on colored voters so far ahead of the election. One thing certain, if your correspondent is not deceived some white Redjusters here will vote for Massey. Many of them are deeply interested in the election, and will vote for Dawson. We believe a number of white men in this county are so sick and tired of politics they will not vote at all; many of them Redjusters, but good, honest citizens.